

Aayusha Karki crowned as Miss University Nepal 2007

The beginning of the second round started with the arrival of contenders on stage with stunning costumes designed by the fashion graduates of Namuna Fashion College. Consequently, the second round started off with reducing the number from 18 to 10. The outstanding 10 participants were again put through the cryptic question from the panel of judges. In the flow of the event, the audience also loved the striking performance from the 'Chiya Bari' of Puja lama.

Lastly, came the most awaited result round or in the organizers word, the 'convocation' round. The final round began with sharing of various title selected by the judges on the basis of evaluating their performance in the preliminary round. The various tittles enlisted as Miss photogenic- Ayusha Karki, Miss personality- Khusbu Oli, Miss friendship- Shovana Shrestha, Miss beautiful hair- Shristi Shrestha, Miss popular- Smriti Shah, Miss best smile- Ishtuti Dhakal and Miss talent- Reema Maharjan.

The end of long list of tittles paved the way for the enthralling moment, to choose the bearer of the crown of World Miss University Nepal 2007. The second runner up was Resu Shah; it seemed a close competition between former Miss Teen Khusbu Oli and Miss teen Ayusha Karki. Then after a pause, the first runner up was announced and it was Khusbu Oli and finally the winner was none other than Ayusha Karki. She is the most inspiring teenager of the year 2007 in Nepal. She is young, talented, gorgeous, outrageous and victorious. So, the Page 6 team drew out some of her evocative reflections.

Here we had Chit-Chat with Aayusha Karki.

How is life these days? It's very busy and hectic.

How do you feel after winning two successive titles in a row? I'm feeling very lucky as well as very proud too.

What makes you proud of yourself? I gave my best and indeed got the best result.

What was the backbone of your success? It was through my determination, hard work and distinctively my family support and also my college.

Usah Rajak Miss World University 2007, Ayusha Karki, Chairman of HCMI

Have you been to bunkers party? Nope-Never.

What's your next target? It's Korea for the World Miss University 2007.

What are your aspirations for Korea? There will be more than 100 countries participating. So, obviously more competition also but I am going with confidence.

Your favorite pass-time? Listening music.

Who is your most favorite artist or band? I like Shakira and Simple Plan.

Your favorite Nepali personality? Ruby Rana.

Your future plans? After my intermediate, I would go abroad and probably U.S.A.

Where would you see yourself 10 years from now? I will be successful woman and dedicate to work for orphans.

Your preferred outfit and color? Any thing I feel comfortable. Maybe blue jeans.

Your dream date? He should be caring and loving, understanding my desire and with of good personality.

Your 'Identity' in one sentence? I'm very ambitious, true and combination of beauty with a brain.

