

The Himalayan
September 26th 2007

Miss World University Nepal on Sept 27

KATHMANDU: Another talented beauty will be crowned on September 27 and 20 university girls from across the nation are eagerly looking forward to the day. Out of 100 applicants who had sent in their names, 20 have been selected to vie for the title of Health Care International Management World Miss University (HCMI WMU) Nepal.

"The winner will represent Nepal as 'Peace Ambassador' and participate in the World Miss University pageant to be held in Korea in November," informed Sabin Shrestha, Executive Director of Excel Business Link, the organisers of HCMIWMU Nepal.

The title does not carry any cash prize but the cost of the winner's participation in the international arena will be taken care of. The first and second runners-up will be getting prizes.

Apart from the main title, the 20 participants will also be vying for other titles, namely — Miss Personality, Miss Beautiful Smile, Miss Photogenic, Miss Friendship Most Popular, Best Hair and Most Talented.

The event is being organised by Excel Business Link in association with Nepzie Pvt Ltd and Fashion Link Pvt Ltd. — HNS

